New York Number Theory Seminar Sixth Annual Workshop on Combinatorial and Additive Number Theory

CUNY Graduate Center
May 26-29, 2008

Local information

The CUNY Graduate Center is centrally located in Manhattan at 365 Fifth Avenue, between 34th and 35th Streets. The Empire State Building is diagonally across the street. We are easily reached by bus and subway from anywhere in New York City. New York Penn Station, Grand Central Station, and the Port Authority Bus Station are all less than a 20 minute walk away, so it is feasible to stay almost anywhere in the metropolitan region.

The meeting will be held in Room C198 on the Concourse Level of the CUNY Graduate Center. Lectures will begin Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday at 9:00 a.m. and end at 5:00 p.m. There is an excellent cafeteria on the 8th floor of the Graduate Center, and many restaurants in the neighborhood. Espresso, latte, etc. are available in the coffee bar on the ground floor of the Graduate Center, and also at the Starbucks across the street on the northeast corner of Fifth Avenue and 35th Street.

Computers with internet access are available in the math lounge on the 4th floor.

There are many great museums within walking distance of the Graduate Center. The Morgan Library is on Madison Avenue and 36th Street. The Museum of Modern Art is on 53rd Street between Fifth and Sixth Avenues, and the Metropolitan Museum of Art is on Fifth Avenue at 83rd Street. There are also many excellent galleries for contemporary art in Chelsea, a few blocks south and west of the Graduate Center.

HOTELS

There are many hotels in the neighborhood of the CUNY Graduate Center, but none of them gives us a special conference rate. Good deals can sometimes be found on the internet. If you work for a state university or US government organization, you may be able to get a (usually very low) government rate for your hotel. We have no recommendations. However, the following is a hotel list prepared by the Graduate Center.
